U. S. Lashes Shootings in African Riots

WASHINGTON (AP)—In an extraordinary action the United States today denounced police violence against Negro demonstrators in South Africa.

A statement issued at the State Department admitted that the rioting of the past few days and the measures taken against it constitute an internal matter of another country on which the United States does not normally comment.

State Department press officer Lincoln White declined to say whether the statement was made because the United States government wanted to express dissatisfaction with the racial segregation policies of the South African government.

Negro mobs have been demonstrating against South Africa's white supremacy laws.

Reports from Johannesburg said police had fired on the mobs again today.

Monday they killed at least 64 Africans and wounded 250 others.

While issued this statement, when asked at a news conference whether he had any reaction to police firing on the demonstrators.

"The United States deplors violence in all its forms and hopes that the African people of South Africa will be able to obtain redress for legitimate grievances by peaceful means.

"While the United States as a matter of practice does not ordinarily comment on the internal affairs of governments with which it enjoys normal relations, it cannot help but regret the tragic loss of life resulting from the measures taken against the demonstrators in South Africa."

State Co-op Loan Totaled $12 Million

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Arkansas co-operative got a loan of more than 12 million dollars on rice last year, Rep. William H. Avery (R-Kan.) said yesterday. In a plea for legislation to limit Commodity Credit Corp. loans.

He placed in the Congressional Record a list of 1959 crop price support loans for the period which ended Jan. 31.

Avery said his information from the Agriculture Department showed loans made without regard to repayment.

The largest loan was $12,430,371 to Arkansas Rice Growers Cooperative Assn. of Stuttgart, Ark. Another Stuttgart firm, producer of rice mills, Inc., received a $2,081,058 loan — one of three million dollar loans cited by Avery.

The CCC obtains and stores commodities through price support loans.

Avery said his pending bill would limit support to $50,000 a year to any one person. He said the present law, which allows loans over $50,000 but requires repayment with interest, expires Dec. 31.

"Without legislation," he said, "any size loan can be made and repayment by commodity, resulting in a loss of millions of dollars to the Commodity Credit Corp."

Didn't Like Being Called a Drunk

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A lot of people eminently qualified to drink tonight may be offering one today to Emery T. Newbern, 38, creator of the lubricated legions.

Because of Newbern, common drunks no longer legally exist in California, at least not in the long-accepted sense of the term as applied under state law. So they can't be clamped in jail under that common heading.

In the case of Newbern, 38, a ship's navigator, the term has not been run in as a common drunk more than 100 times.

He didn't like it, so he wrote the California Supreme Court, challenging the legality of the term. The court agreed with him, saying the term common drunk "is not a medical one and we do not, therefore, think that a case can be made for the establishment of a technical meaning."

So Superior Court Judge John G. Barnes ordered Newbern freed, and with him 128 others jailed on the same charge. All were arrested in unincorporated areas of Los Angeles County, where state law prevails. Cities within the county have valid ordinances covering drunkenness.

The district attorney's office said no more persons will be sentenced under the state law until the Legislature amends it.

Negro Group Plans Cucumber Meet

A cucumber production meeting will be held Thursday, March 24, at 10 a.m. upstairs in the City Hall in Hope.

Assistant County Agent, Cayce Smith said that Gordon Barnes, extension entomologist and Earl Allen, extension horticulturist of the U. of A. will be present to lead discussions on diseases and insects, control and cultural practices of cucurbits.

Experiences have taught us that a definite plan of action is necessary in order to produce quality cucurbits at an economical cost. The best information available will be given at this meeting for your consideration and use.

Testimony in Plane Bomb Is Underway

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP)—Two Civil Aeronautics Board investigators testified today the National Airlines transport destroyed apparently by a bomb explosion Jan. 6 was operating normally up to the point of its last radio broadcast near here.

Their testimony strengthened the likelihood of an ultimate conclusion that the crash was caused by an explosion near a seat occupied by Julian Andrew Frank, 33, a New York attorney with a million dollars of life insurance.

Frank's body and part of the airplane wreckage was found at Kure Beach near here. The main part of the plane and the bodies of 33 others who had been aboard the plane were found 14 miles northwest of Bolivia, N. C., 16 miles inland from Kure Beach.

CAB member G. Joseph Minetti, presiding, emphasized at the opening of the hearing that this was purely an administrative fact-finding proceeding.

The CAB will make its own findings, Minetti said.

David L. Thompson, Jamaica, N. Y., CAB safety bureau investigator in charge, said investigations showed that the breakup of the plane started near Kure Beach, while the main parts of the aircraft struck the ground 10 miles to the west.

Thompson said that initial examination of Frank's body showed "injuries of an unusual nature, not normally associated with an aircraft accident, and the presence of foreign particles in body tissue."

Cotton Crop Ran 14.5 Million Bales

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Census Bureau has reported that 14,506,038 running bales of cotton were ginned from the 1959 crop. This number compared with 11,435,323 bales ginned from the previous year's crop. This year's ginnings were equivalent to 14,549,154 bales of 500 pounds gross weight.

The ginnings by states this year and last, respectively, in running bales included:

All Around Town

Mrs. Marie Hatfield informs us this morning that no local students in college will be listed as Hope residents when the government takes its census within a few weeks. Mrs. Hatfield, who heads workers in most of Hempstead County, said all students will be listed at the college which they attend unless they travel back and forth — the college town will get the credit for Hope residents. This involves several hundred and it seems a worthwhile project for some organization to try and change.

A field representative of the Social Security Administration will be in the courtroom of Hope City Hall at 9 a.m. on April 7-14-28 for the purpose of discussing social security problems with local residents.

State Health Department Statistics reveal 29 deaths in Hempstead County during the past month. There were 10 girls and 10 boys. The report showed seven white boys and six white girls, three Negro boys and four Negro girls.

Conference Told Disarmament Has to Be Controlled

By GUSTAV SVENSSON

GENEVA (AP)—Jules Moch of France told the 10-nation disarmament conference today a simple promise to give up the possession of nuclear weapons would be without meaning because it could not be controlled.

Moch spoke in an attempt to head off an emotionally charged anti-bomb campaign taking shape among the Communist delegations.

There are six aspects to the problem of nuclear disarmament, Moch said, and only four of these could be enforced by an international control system. The other two, taken in isolation, represent only pious wishes, he said.

Moch listed these as the four controllable elements:

1. Suspension of nuclear weapons tests.
2. Ban on the further production of fissionable materials for military purposes.
3. Ban on the manufacture of weapons incorporating fissionable materials.
4. Reconversion of existing stocks of fissionable materials to peaceful uses.

The uncontrollable elements, Moch said, are:

1. Prohibition on the use of nuclear weapons.
2. Ban on the possession of nuclear weapons.

The Western powers say they suspect that the Soviet Union's offer to place nuclear disarmament first on its timetable for world disarmament holds down to the old Soviet proposal for a nuclear ban without adequate safeguards.

Soviet representative Valerian Zorin told the conference Monday the U.S.S.R. is quite willing to reverse the order of its disarmament plan in deference to the West.

"If the West wants to start with full nuclear disarmament and take conventional disarmament later, we have no objections," he said.

Tax Collector to Trial at Harrison

HARRISON, Ark. (AP)—Procedures on the handling of tax records were described by three Boone County officials today in the trial of former Tax Collector Paul Young.

Young is on trial in Boone Circuit Court on charges of alleged shortages in his office during 1953.

The three officials, called by the state, were County Clerk Sam Kiser, County Collector John Roy Holt, and Tax Assessor James Phifer.

Kiser and Phifer were serving while Young was in office. Holt succeeded Young as collector, winning the office in an uncontested election.

Routine tax handling procedures were described.

Over defense objections, the state introduced in evidence 15 volumes of duplicate 1958 tax receipts. The state contended a number of these receipts showed alterations and erasures.

About 150 taxpayers have been subpoenaed by the prosecution. They have been asked to bring their tax receipts to court.

Young's trial began yesterday. Examination of 38 prospective jurors required drawing of a special jury panel in Boone Circuit Court yesterday.

In opening statements, prosecutor John B. Driver charged that Young had collected taxes in excess of the amounts actually owed by some taxpayers.

Defense attorneys maintained that Young had nothing to do with the books between an audit in November of 1958 and another audit in February of 1959 when the alleged shortages were reported by Young, who paid back $2,661 allegedly missing.

But Driver later filed charges of misappropriation of public funds, collecting and manipulating of tax collecting records and altering public record with intent to defraud.

The three charges were consolidated for trial.

Defense attorneys moved yesterday to have special prosecutor Arnold Adams of Harrison reveal his employer. This was overruled.

Ed Adams said he was employed by Boone County Court at Driver's request.

The family night supper of the Methodist Church will be held in the Men's Class Room of the church at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 23. It will be a covered dish supper for the members and friends of the church and their families.

Following the supper the film "Albert Schweitzer" will be shown in the sanctuary of the church. This is a feature length film in color and is in great demand throughout the church.

The public is invited to see this film which will be shown at 8 p.m.

AP&L Asks Okay to Stock Sale

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Public Service Company was asked yesterday to approve sale of 7 1/2 million dollars worth of Arkansas Power & Light Co. common stock to its parent company, Middle South Utilities.

The price would be $12.50 a share. AP&L said in its application that Young had nothing to do with the books between an audit in November of 1958 and another audit in February of 1959 when the alleged shortages were reported by Young, who paid back $2,661 allegedly missing.

But Driver later filed charges of misappropriation of public funds, collecting and manipulating of tax collecting records and altering public record with intent to defraud.

The three charges were consolidated for trial.

Defense attorneys moved yesterday to have special prosecutor Arnold Adams of Harrison reveal his employer. This was overruled.

Ed Adams said he was employed by Boone County Court at Driver's request.

Dallarway Has No Plan for Transfers

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Dallarway School Board said yesterday it does not plan transfers of pupils now in school and that any integration it might approve would start in the first grade.

A nine-page statement of Board policies filed in federal district court here in compliance with a Feb. 19 order of Judge J. Smith Henley did not set out a definite plan of desegregation.

It said that in the assignment of first graders it would carefully review all factors in accord with state pupil placement laws and Board regulations.

Normally, it said, there would be no transfers of pupils already in school. If a pupil coming into the district had attended school there before he probably would be assigned to the school he formerly attended. On other incoming students, the Board said, it generally would consider a pupil's choice before making an assignment.

Henley Feb. 19 ordered the Board to submit a statement of its policies "so as to end compulsory segregation," but he denied the request of three Negro plaintiffs for an order to admit them to the all-white Dallarway School near Pine Bluff.

Both sides have appealed parts of Henley's ruling to the Eighth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in St. Louis.

The Board's statement said that in making assignments it would consider, so far as possible, "the preference of the pupil and his parents as to the school to which the pupil will be initially assigned."

It said it would make assignments at the end of a school year and arrange to have cases of pupils requesting transfers disposed of before the new term opened.

The board said it understands that the U. S. Supreme Court's desegregation decision allows consideration of race in assignments during a transition period which it called a time of adjustment "to an operation free of unconstitutional discrimination on the basis of race and not, as some apparently believe, the period to mix the races."

It added, "Mixing may or may not result from the constitutional application of the assignment law, the regulations and the policy set forth herein."

Ministers Quit

LA PAZ, Bol'via (AP)—Three ministers quit President Hernan Siles Zuazo's Cabinet Monday night, apparently as an aftermath of the brief police rebellion Saturday in which 16 persons were killed and 106 wounded.

Agriculture Minister Jorge Anco resigned with Labor Minister Anibal Aguilar and Guillermo Bedregal, who ran Bolivia's nationalized tin mines. No reason was given for the resignations.

Plane Barely Misses a Schoolhouse

DENTON, Md. (AP)—An Air Force jet bomber, narrowly missing a crowded schoolhouse, crashed into a small home Monday and exploded, killing a woman and her two young granddaughters.

The plane and the one-story home were destroyed. The pilot, who had ejected himself from the disabled, twin-engine B57, survived.

There were 200 children in a wing of the schoolhouse, only 100 feet away, which was damaged by the explosion. Twelve were injured slightly.

The dead were identified as Jessie Brown, 50; Laverne Brown, 6, and Karen Brown, 4. All were Negroes.

In Baltimore, the Martin Co. said the plane was one of two on a test flight to determine if recent modifications were acceptable to the Air Force.

"It looked like an atomic bomb explosion," said Irvin Crossan, 42, a Denton contractor.

"It was a big, black mushroom pile of smoke and then a red flash came up. And then I saw the pilot and some pieces of equipment fly through the air."

The pilot was Air Force Capt. William F. Smith, 32, of Los Angeles, stationed at Warner-Robins Air Force Base, Ga. He was in serious condition in a hospital at nearby Easton, suffering from shock, a fractured pelvis and a compound fracture of the right leg. He declined to talk to newsmen.

The plane took off about half an hour before the crash from Martin's airport near Baltimore. An Air Force officer said Monday night: "We have no indication at this time of the cause."

X-Ray Unit Must Visit All Counties

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Health Department has the duty of making the mobile X-ray program available to all counties, Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett held yesterday.

A 1959 act requiring mobile X-ray visits within a year to every county which had 25 or more persons being treated for tuberculosis in state sanatoriums, was not meant to exclude any counties, Bennett ruled.

Dr. Lee A. Dean of Bentonville, Benton County Tuberculosis Assn. president, had complained that the act discriminated against his county.

He said Benton County had only 23 tubercular patients last year and was not one of the 46 counties scheduled for a visit this year.

Convictions Coming Fast on Sitdowns

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Convictions were coming faster than arrests in the eighth week of Negro sitdown demonstrations aimed primarily at segregated eating facilities and libraries.

A number of courts had a backlog of cases as a result of the arrest of more than 1,000 Negroes since Feb. 1.

The threat of boycotts crept into statements of some Negro leaders while in the North picketing of variety stores appeared to be gaining strength.

Thirty-seven Negroes were convicted of disorderly conduct in heavily guarded city court at Memphis, Tenn., Monday. Thirty-six were fined $25 each for staging a sitdown at a white public library and a Negro newspaper editor was fined $50 for talking to them.

Later a rally of about 2,000 Negroes pledged a twice-a-week boycott of Memphis stores, especially during the Easter shopping season.

Eleven Negro students were arrested at Savannah during continuing sitdowns in that Georgia city.

W. W. Law, Georgia president of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, called for a boycott of Savannah stores refusing to serve Negroes at lunch counters. Several Negro youths stood outside one store and asked Negroes to shop elsewhere.

Negro leaders of the Petersburg (Va.) Improvement Assn. informed the management of a local variety store that unless lunch facilities were made available "without regard to racial identity" Negro patrons would be asked to stay away.

The Rev. Wyatt Walker, a Negro minister active in anti-segregation demonstrations at Petersburg, told police a bottle containing a threatening note smashed a window at his home Monday. England regional conference of the NAACP set Saturday as the day for peaceful demonstration of the Congress of Racial Equality picketing of New England variety stores. An official said the picketing would continue in that racially-ing would be followed next Monday by a boycott of the stores by folk, Va., did not set a date for Negro customers.

Rose Bowl to Go After Any of 5 Best Teams

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The fledgling Big Five Athletic Conference will search among the best football teams in the country for its Rose Bowl opponent.

After getting the brushoff from the Big Ten, the five-school group is going free-lancing, service teams included.

Dr. Frank Kidner, of California, spokesman for the AAWU-Athletic Assn. of Western Universities—all but ruled out the possibility of two West Coast teams playing each other in Pasadena.

It would be "most unlikely" that an independent West Coast club would be selected to meet the winner of the Big Five-California, Stanford, Southern California, UCLA and Washington, Kidner said.

"We are going to look for an outstanding team," Kidner said after a meeting Monday of AAWU athletic directors and faculty representatives.

The Big Ten and the defunct Pacific Coast Conference had a contract for the Pasadena classic, oldest of the bowl games, since the 1947 New Year's Day game. The Midwesterners won 12 of the 14. This year they decided against renewing the contract.

Kidner said a Big Ten team would be considered should there be a change of heart against post-season competition.

Brown Faces a Period of Inactivity

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Lightweight champion Joe Brown faces an indefinite period of inactivity because he got some of his own medicine — a technical knockout defeat.

However, it was only pride that he lost — his title wasn't at stake. In his last two title defenses he won on technical knockouts over Paolo Rosti and Dave Charney.

The startling turn of events came Monday night while the little Negro from Baton Rouge, La., was working easily against Ray Portilla, a virtual unknown, in a scheduled 10-round heavyweight fight.

In the fourth round, just after Brown had almost dropped his foe with a right to the jaw, Portilla charged in with a two-fisted attack to the midsection. Brown blocked most of the wild swings but one right curled around his left elbow and crashed into his back. He suffered a fractured costal cartilage — broke ribs.

Brown coasted the remainder of that round and the fifth before notifying his handlers he couldn't fight anymore. The fight went into the books as a technical knockout in the sixth round under Texas boxing rules.

Portilla, a New Yorker living in Houston, looked as shocked as Brown.

When the bout was stopped Brown was ahead on points on the card of Referee Tom Altira, 50-47. He also led 49-48 on the card of one judge but Portilla was ahead 50-47 on the card of the other.

Brown will be out of action for at least one month and "probably for several more," the hospital said.

McLish, Henry Counted on to Carry Redlegs

By JACK HAND Associated Press Staff Writer

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Freddie Hutchinson counts on Cal McLish and Bill Henry to bolster a weak Cincinnati pitching staff that last year gave up more runs than his sluggers could drive home.

Hutch, an old pitcher, didn't need to have his value driven home as forcefully as his Cincinnati staff did in 1959.

"It seemed every time we took a lead into the late innings, we couldn't hold them off," he said. "That is why Gabe (General Manager Gabe Paul) went out and got us some pitching. We had to give up something to get it but we think we have improved our staff."

Hutchinson sacrificed a brilliant second baseman and a strong bat. He sent Johnny Temple to Cleveland but he got McLish, second baseman Billy Martin and rookie first baseman Gordon Coleman. To get Henry, a superior left-handed relief man, and handyman Lee Walls from Chicago, he gave up home run potential in Frank Thomas, who struggled through a bad season in 1959.

Cincinnati has a fine crop of rookies who figure for the future. One or two might make the grade this year. Hutchinson is high on Tony Gonzalez, a Cuban outfielder who hit .300 for Havana last season. Shortstop Chico Cardenas and first baseman Rogelio Alvarez, both Cuban rookies from the Havana farm, have impressed their new boss.

Coleman (.353 at Mobile) is a key man. If he makes it at first base, Frank Robinson (.311) can stay in left field. If not, Robinson will have to return to first against his wishes.

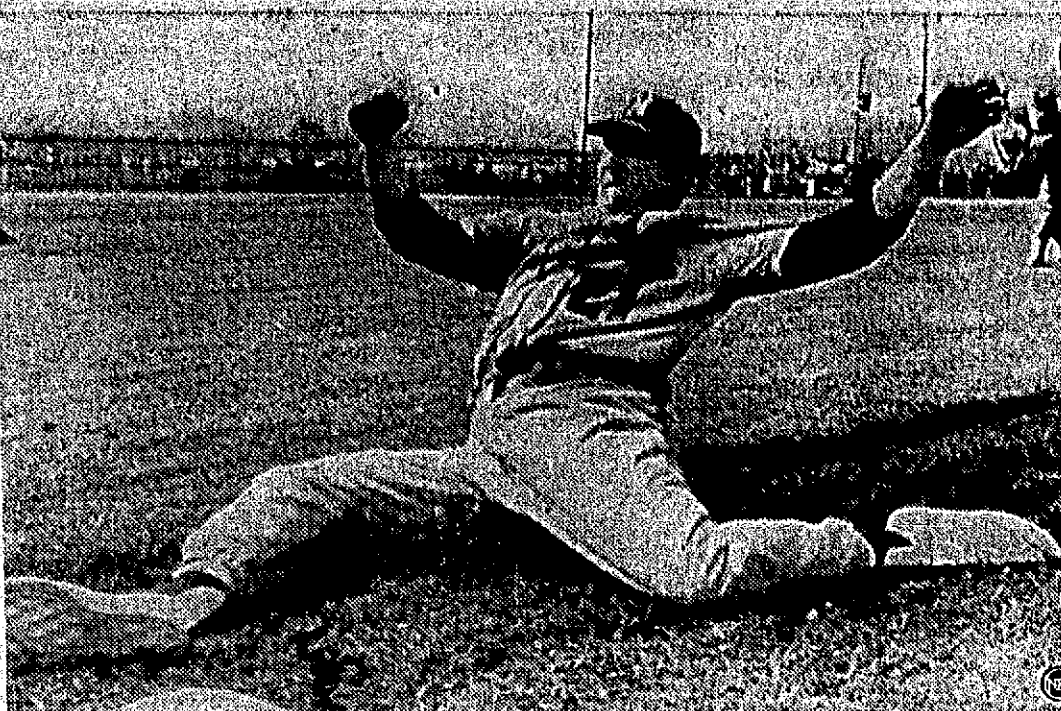

Martin (.260 at Cleveland) will team with Roy McMillan (.244) as the second base combination with Willie Jones (.257) and Eddie Kaso (.283) probably splitting the work at third. Young Ello Clinch (.255 at Havana) can fill in any place.

Ed Bailey (.264) is the No. 1 catcher with help from Dutch Dotterer (.267) and Frank House (.236 at Kansas City).

Hutchinson's starting pitchers figure to be Don Newcombe (.13-G), Joe Nuxhall (.9-9), Bob Purkey (.13-18) and McLish (.9-8 at Cleveland). Claude Osteen (.8-12 at Seattle), Jay Hook (.5-5) and Jim O'Toole (.5-8) are fighting for the other starting job. Ed Palmquist (.9-12 at St. Paul) is also highly regarded as is Orlando Pena (.5-9). Jim Brosnan (.9-6) will do double duty spot starting and relieving.

The bullpen will be in the very capable hands of Henry (.9-8 in 65 games with the Cubs), Cuban Raul Sanchez (.11-5 at Havana) probably will do the right-handed relieving.

Bayer Captures Florida Money

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — George Bayer, who believes in letting the chips fall where they may, saw a four-footer drop into the cup in the sudden death playoff of the St. Petersburg Open Golf Tournament, and is $2,000 richer today.

The Glenview, Ill., pro tied with Jack Pleck of Los Angeles at 282 at the end of 72 holes Monday.

On the first extra hole, Pleck put his third shot a foot from the pin for an easy par four, but it wasn't good enough as Bayer sent his chip bouncing and rolling into the cup for a birdie.

Hawks Mad About Playoff Officiating

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Hawks, physically battered and hopping mad over the officiating, may be haunted by last year's jaker upset in the crucial fifth game of the Western playoff final with Minneapolis tonight.

"Maybe this battering and bad officiating will fire them up," said Hawk owner Ben Kerner. "That (Dick) Powers has been making bad calls throughout the series and that out-of-bounds call Sunday was the last straw."

True, the unpredictable Hawks might explode tonight and take a 3-2 series lead. But it would be no more surprising if Elgin Baylor and the Lakers pulled another one out of the fire.

That's what happened in the fifth game last year. The Lakers grabbed an overtime victory in St. Louis, then won the series the next day in Minneapolis.

Larry Foust is nursing a heel bruise, Slater Martin a leg injury and St. Green a knee bruise going into tonight's game.

The Lakers were ahead 103-101 with a seconds left Sunday in Minneapolis when the Hawks passed the ball in to Pettit. He was fouled by Rudy Larusso but times, has beaten the Dodgers only 14 times in 44 lifetime decisions and only once in the last eight years.

But the 38-year-old left-hander, who has compiled a 267-172 won-loss record since he reached the majors in 1942, turned the trick against his nemesis Monday.

The Braves' ace, giving up only two unearned runs in a six-inning workout, limited the Dodgers to seven hits, struck out three, walked none and picked up the exhibition victory as the Braves registered St. Paul's first win in a 10-1 Kansas City romp.

RBIs as St. Louis beat Cincinnati.

Milwaukee collected nine hits in 8, and Pittsburgh defeated the off Roger Craig and Larry Sherry, Chicago White Sox 8-5 to snap the scoring two in the eighth against American League champions the World Series pitching star to three-game winning streak.

Celtics Back Home, Likely in Saddle

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Celtics, back home and facing a Philadelphia team that features an injured Will Chamberlain, rate as solid favorites to wrap up National Basketball Assn. Eastern Division playoffs tonight.

Local wagering favored the defending champion Celtics by 9½ points.

The spread was built up by: 1. The fact that Celtics have lost only two games this season at Boston, site of tonight's fifth game.

2. Boston has won three of four in the best-of-seven series and would like to wrap it up early to provide a rest before going against the winner of the Minneapolis-St. Louis Western Division playoff.

3. Most importantly, Chamberlain, Philadelphia's one-man gang, is in doubtful physical shape.

The 7-foot-1 rookie wonder has been sub-par since he injured his hand during a scuffle with Boston's Tommy Heinsohn in the second game of the playoffs.

Philadelphia team physician Simon Ball, however, said that Chamberlain's hand is mending well and that the Warriors' big man may be ready tonight.

Hull Scoring Ace in Hockey

MONTREAL (AP) — The National Hockey League's final official statistics released today showed Bobby Hull of Chicago Black Hawks as scoring champion and goalie Jacques Plante of Montreal Canadiens as winner of the Vezina Trophy.

Each carries a $1,000 bonus from the league.

A goal and an assist in his last game Sunday night gave the 21-year-old Hull 39 goals and 42 assists for 81 points and a one-point margin over Bronco Horvath of Boston Bruins. Hull gets the Art Ross Trophy.

Plante won the Vezina Trophy for the fifth consecutive season, a feat unprecedented in NHL history. The award goes to the goaltender who sees the most action for the club with the best defensive record.

The league-champion Canadiens, with Plante in nets for 69 of the 70 games, yielded 178 goals. Glen Hall and his Chicago mates allowed 180.

Dick Herbert, sports editor of the Raleigh News and Observer and chairman of the awards committee, announced the selection Monday. Herbert said the runner-up was Jerry Lucas, sophomore star of NCAA champion Ohio State.

Robertson holds the all-time scoring crown for college basketball. When he closed out his collegiate career Saturday night in San Francisco, he had piled up 2,973 points over three seasons. He averaged 33.7 points a game this past season with 1,011 in 30 games.

Increase in Non Farm Jobs in State

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Employment Security Division today reported a 12 per cent rise in its non-agricultural job placements for the month of February.

J. L. Bland, administrator of the ESD, said the February placement total was 4,898, up 545 from the January figure of 4,353.

He said 11,971 new applications for jobs were received through the agency's 29 local offices in February.

Bland attributed the increase in job placements to generally improved business conditions in Arkansas.

Initial claims for unemployment insurance dropped 47 per cent between January and February, he said.

Nobles Objecting
LONDON (AP)—Britain's ancient College of Arms today declared that test-tube babies sired by a donor should be barred from inheriting noble family titles.

School Can Help Conduct Survey

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett ruled today that public school funds cannot be spent to help conduct a labor survey in Arkansas.

The opinion had been requested by Justice of the Peace Guy Camp Jr., of Conway.

Camp said he questioned use of school funds in a labor survey sponsored jointly by the state Education Department and the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission.

The survey was scheduled as part of a school population questionnaire.

In his ruling Bennett cited a constitutional provision which prohibits school funds from being diverted into any other channels.

The attorney general also cited an Arkansas law which says any school enumeration shall include only children between 6 and 18 years.

Bus, Train Ram Killing Seven

CAMDEN, Ala. (AP)—A school bus and a freight train rammed together near here today and first reports said seven persons were killed.

Highway patrol cars sped from neighboring communities to the scene of the wreck near Coy, Ala., 18 miles south of Camden and about 100 miles southwest of Montgomery.

Deputy Sheriff Warren Tate at Camden and the bus was taking Negro students to a consolidated grammar-high school at Coy.

Tate said the train was a freight running on the St. Louis-San Francisco line.

Italy Picks Tambroni

ROME (AP)—A dapper, 38-year-old lawyer who has been a minister in seven Italian governments today had a chance to head his own Cabinet.

But the opportunity came to Fernando Tambroni in the midst of Italy's worst political crisis since World War II, and there was no certainty that he would succeed in forming a government.

President Giovanni Gronchi Monday night named Tambroni to try to put together a government to end the four-week old crisis longest since the war.

Cunard Takes to Air

LONDON (AP)—After carrying passengers across the Atlantic by ship for more than a century, the Cunard Line now plans to carry them by air too.

Sir John Brocklebank, chairman of the firm that operates the liners Queen Elizabeth and Queen Mary, announced Monday that Cunard will buy 60 per cent of the stock of Eagle Airways in a few weeks. Brocklebank said plans to expand the small, 10-year-old British airline depend on a license for transatlantic flights, trip to France.

Having graduated from Wakefield High School, Virginia, she is now a sophomore at William and Mary and is majoring in journalism.

Arsonist Eludes Special Patrols

INDIO, Calif. (AP)—Special patrols moved through this fire-frightened desert city today as edgy citizens wondered where an elusive arsonist would throw his torch next.

There have been three major fires in six days and one estimate places damage at more than a million dollars. The third of the fires broke out Sunday in a movie theater, sending 50 patrons into the street. The theater roof later caved in.

The City Council Monday declared a state of emergency—placing the fire and police departments on standby status—and asked Gov. Edmund G. Brown to make a similar declaration.

Firemen said the blazes definitely were the work of an arsonist. The first broke out Wednesday at a lumber yard. Two days later a date-packing shed and warehouse burned.

British Royalty Names Prince

LONDON (AP)—Britain's new royal baby has been named Andrew Albert Christian Edward, it was officially announced today.

He will be known as Prince Andrew.

The first infant born to a reigning British monarch in 103 years, the boy is second in line to the British throne. Only his 11-year-old brother, Prince Charles, is ahead of him as a potential successor to their mother, who became the sovereign in 1952.

The boy was delivered at Buckingham Palace Feb. 19. He weighed 7 pounds, 3 ounces at birth.

Khrushchev Okay Now

MOSCOW (AP)—Premier Nikita Khrushchev apparently has recovered from influenza and is ready for his trip to Paris Wednesday.

The Soviet Foreign Ministry said today there would be no statement on the Premier's recuperation. But "if Mr. Khrushchev is going, it may be assumed the stock of Eagle Airways in a few weeks. Brocklebank said plans to expand the small, 10-year-old British airline depend on a license for transatlantic flights, trip to France.

Graduate Cited for Perseverance

MEMPHIS (AP)—Richard A. Carpenter of Bebo, Ark., was cited for his perseverance when he was graduated from the University of Tennessee last night as a doctor of dental surgery.

Dr. Carpenter was awarded the Marion L. Fuller plaque for overcoming the most difficulties in getting his degree.

Carpenter readily admitted he and his family had a "rough time" living on what money he could borrow to supplement his wife's earnings.

The happiest person in the commencement exercise audience probably were Carpenters, wife and their four children.

Structural Failure Is Crash Cause

TELL CITY, Ind. (AP)—Investigators agreed today that structural failure preceded the crash of a Northwest Airlines Elextra turboprop plane near here, but they said it may take a long time to determine what caused that failure.

The FBI said fingerprints of two passengers and a ring belonging to a third were found Monday. They were the first identifiable remains found in four days of searching the scattered wreckage.

The plane broke up in midair and carried 63 passengers and crew members to their deaths in a huge crater in a field 10 miles southeast of Tell City Thursday.

"You can tell it's structural failure when a wing comes off two miles away from the rest of the aircraft," said James R. Durbach, chairman of the Civil Aeronautics Board.

"What we're trying to find out now is what caused this structural failure. It could be one of a number of things—turbulence, or an explosion."

Arthur Neumann, the CAB's chief investigator at the scene, discounted reports that evidence had been turned up indicating the plane was destroyed deliberately.

"This is news to me," Neumann said.

"There is nothing to support that report at all. It will be a long time before we can get into the analysis of what caused this crash."

"We just haven't uncovered anything that would support that report."

The FBI said identifiable fingerprints of Harold V. Snyder of Highland Park, Ill., a passenger, and Arnie Kowal of Minneapolis, flight engineer, were found on the remains. A University of Notre Dame ring was identified as belonging to John Bachner of South Bend.

He was an unsuccessful candidate for attorney general in 1956.

His widow, a daughter, parents and a brother survive.

Funeral arrangements will be announced.

DOROTHY DIX

Girl Doesn't Love Father of Her Child

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am 20 and pregnant. The boy is supposed to marry me after we get our blood test. I don't love him and he doesn't love me. He's only marrying me because my parents insist that he does. After my baby is born he will start divorce proceedings.

I want to go to a home for unwed mothers and leave my baby there. My mother says they will treat me bad. If I go to another state, someone would have to sign me in and out of the place. Is this true? Should I go ahead and marry this boy? Can you give me the address of a home I might get into? I don't care where it is. How much will it cost for three months? How do I go about entering it? — Desperate

Dear Desperate: After reading your letter I consulted with a friend who has been helping girls in your plight for more than 30 years. She and I agree. If you don't love the boy, don't marry him. A list of homes for unwed mothers in states other than yours goes to you today. But if you go outside the state, you must be prepared to pay all the expenses yourself; therefore I am including the name of a counselor who will advise you about all the various possibilities and costs.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: A girl, who moved in next door (she's 15), pesters me and my friends. We are 17 and don't need a chaperon. I've tried to explain that he comes to see me not her, but she always makes an effort to be here when he comes over. We will be awaiting your advice.

— Bothered and Fed Up
Dear Bothered and Fed Up: Next time your neighbor rings the bell, stop her at the door with the explanation that you have company and would appreciate it if she came another day. Be polite but firm. She'll take the hint and like you all the more for calling a halt to her pushing ways.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: In the paper I see an invitation to write for the leaflet, "The Teen-age Code." I am a Probation Officer in Juvenile Court and would appreciate a copy of this. Thank you. — E.A.H.

Dear E.A.H.: Your request for a copy of my "Teen-age Code" is most gratifying. A copy is being air-mailed you today. I should like to hear about your work.

Send your problem to DOROTHY DIX. Be sure to enclose a stamp, self-addressed envelope, and address her in care of this newspaper.

MOP to Abandon L. R. to K. C. Runs

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Missouri Pacific Railroad's last two daily passenger trains between Little Rock, Ark., and Kansas City, Mo., will be discontinued today.

The Interstate Commerce Commission authorized dropping of the trains yesterday.

Discontinuance was opposed by numerous residents and cities in Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas.

The ICC said the company offered evidence that it lost about $147,000 on the runs in 1958 and showed a deficit of more than $124,000 in the first 10 months of last year.

The trains, operating via Coffeyville, Kan., and Fort Smith, Ark., served 46 intermediate points on the 530-mile route.

Appraisal Suit Ousted By Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Washington Circuit Court's dismissal of a taxpayer's suit to recover $103,000 from a private appraisal firm was affirmed by the Arkansas Supreme Court today.

The complaint, filed on Aug. 26, 1958, by J. Hal Jones and four other Washington County residents, charged that A. B. Capers Co. had violated the contract under which it undertook a county-wide tax reassessment survey.

The plaintiffs detailed several particulars in which they said the contract had not been followed. They sought recovery for Washington County of money paid the firm for the reappraisal.

The defendant company replied that no cause of action was stated and when the plaintiffs did not file additional pleadings the trial court dismissed the lawsuit.

Jones and his associates appealed.

The Supreme Court affirmed the lower court in a unanimous opinion written by Justice Paul Ward.

Ward wrote that a careful reading of the complaint did not reveal any allegations that the contract was not binding or any allegations of fraud or illegal payments.

Plane Crash Tragedy

FULLERTON, Calif. (AP)—Leon M. Boisseranc watched from the yard of his home as his son, Leon Jr., 29, circled overhead in his light plane.

Suddenly the plane's engine quit. It spiraled, plunged into a home, and exploded.

The home was that of Emil Boisseranc—the flier's uncle. He hurried his wife and three children from the burning home and tried unsuccessfully to save his nephew.

Boisseranc Jr. died in the wreckage. The home was destroyed. The uncle's hands and face were badly burned.

THOSE SWINGIN' GATES—This wrought-iron gateway guards the drive leading to Elvis Presley's $100,000 home in Memphis, Tenn. And Elvis' uncle, Travis Presley, guards the gate, except that he hasn't had much to do while the singer was in the Army. But now Elvis is out and Travis anticipates the usual crowd of adoring teen-agers.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—After a big jet airliner made a perfect landing, mechanics discovered that it wasn't quite all here.

A 10-by-3 foot aluminum door was missing. The door covered the plane's air-conditioning compartment.

Chou to India

NEW DELHI (AP)—Premier Chou En-lai of Communist China will arrive in New Delhi April 19 for talks with Prime Minister Nehru on the border dispute between India and Red China.

Nehru told the lower house of Parliament Chou would remain in New Delhi until April 25. Nehru had suggested April 20 as a suitable date to begin the talks on the 51,000 square miles of disputed territory in the Himalayas.

Nehru has already said he doubts that the conference will produce any immediate solution of the border dispute.

State Personal Income Show an Increase

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The University of Arkansas Business Bulletin reported today that personal income in the state last year was about 150 million dollars greater than in 1958.

The report said the figure represented a 7.1 per cent increase.

Per capita personal income was listed as advancing from about $1,217 in 1958 to $1,300 in 1959, a jump of 6.8 per cent.

Average non-farm employment last year was 4.6 per cent higher than in 1958, the Bulletin said.

The publication, issued by the university's Bureau of Business and Economic Research, noted a 9.7 per cent rise in the number of manufacturing jobs and a 2.8 per cent increase in employment by non-manufacturing firms.

"The generally improved employment situation is further confirmed by a sharp decline in unemployment in Arkansas," the report said. "Average unemployment over the year was 27 per cent below 1958."

Higher average weekly earnings of Arkansas workers combined with more employment to produce an increase of about 100 million dollars in total non-farm payrolls, a rise of 8.4 per cent over the previous year. Gains in manufacturing wages and salaries alone were about 40 million dollars, up 14 per cent.

Friend of Helen Keller Dies at 75

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. (AP)—Polly Thomson, companion of Helen Keller, died in Bridgeport hospital Sunday night after a long illness.

Miss Thomson, 75, entered the hospital in December.

She lived with Miss Keller at the famous blind author's home in Easton, Conn.

She was born Mary Agnes Thomson in Glasgow, Scotland, but became generally known as Polly.

In 1913 she came to the United States to visit an uncle in Swampscott, Mass. In October of the following year she was brought to the attention of Anne Sullivan Macy, teacher of Helen Keller.

Mrs. Macy hired Miss Thomson at their first meeting and a few months later set out with both Miss Keller and Miss Thomson on a tour.

In 1921, in Toronto, Conn., when Mrs. Macy became ill, Miss Thomson made her first appearance on the lecture platform with Miss Keller. Miss Thomson did so well that, afterward, it was she rather than Mrs. Macy who stood beside Miss Keller and interpreted the latter's broken speech to the audience.

After Mrs. Macy died in 1936, Miss Thomson and Miss Keller became inseparable.

Miss Thomson was a good squirrel-hunting woods.

To qualify for ASC, payment for timber stand improvement only requires girdling all cull trees down to 2 inches in diameter. The Gilberts went a step further to cut all brush and paint stumps with 2437 Tree Poison. Cutting this brush will release more moisture and plant food for the producing trees. The ASC will pay on only 20 acres per farm per year but Clarence and Wade are doing another 30 acres that they will not receive payment on. To do 20 acres per year would take them too long to get over all their woodland.

Your Soil Conservation District would like to see more people become interested in taking cull trees from their hardwood stands. If you need help to determine the good quality hardwood cull or contact your local Soil Conservation Work Unit Conservationist, George F. Brown.

Three's a Crowd

BALTIMORE (AP)—A Johns Hopkins University professor says there is scientific truth in the old proverb, "Two's company, three's a crowd."

When three persons are thrown together, two pair off in a closer relationship and the third is sort of left out in the cold, according to Dr. James S. Coleman, assistant professor of social relations.

Dr. Coleman said an electronic brain determined this to be the case, even if all three persons are alike in personality and temperament.

Rescued was the father, Paul Gogart. He was taken to Meadowbrook hospital in serious condition.

The cause of the fire was not immediately determined.

Five Die in Fire

FRANKLYN SQUARE, N. Y. (AP)—A mother and four children died today in a flash fire which swept their Nassau County home. Only the father of the family survived.

The victims were identified as Lottie Gottart, 39, and her children, Martha, 8, Peter, 5, William, 3, and Lydia, 10 months.

Protests Farm Plan

BERLIN (AP)—Bishop Otto Dibelius and other Protestant leaders of East Germany have protested to Communist Premier Otto Grotewohl against the forced collectivization of farmers.

The headquarters in West Berlin of Bishop Dibelius' Evangelical (Lutheran) Church said that a letter of protest, signed by leaders of the church's seven districts in East Germany, had been sent on March 11.

Proper Care of Hardwood

Pictured above is Clarence and Wade Gilbert by one of the Red Oaks in a hardwood plot on their farm. There is about 400 Red Oak trees per acre the size of this one on this 20-acre plot. There are also a few pine seedlings present.

Most of the girdling is done to release pine seedlings, but in this case it is just as important to take out cull trees to release growth of good hardwoods as it is to release pine. It is a good practice to leave good quality hardwoods in a pine stand. The hardwood furnishes food for wildlife in addition to hardwood logs.

This hardwood stand of the Gilberts will be a good squirrel-hunting woods.

Court Strikes Down Fine for Loitering

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today unanimously struck down a $10 fine for loitering and a $10 fine for disorderly conduct imposed on a Negro in Louisville, Ky., police court.

Justice Black delivered the decision which said the record was "entirely lacking in evidence" to support any charges against the Negro, Sam Thompson.

Thompson contended he was only shuffling his feet to the music of a juke box in a cafe when he was arrested. He complained that Louisville police were out to get him because he had hired a lawyer to contest an earlier disorderly charge. Counsel for the city denied this and said Thompson had a record of eight convictions for drunkenness in a year's time.

Counselor Thompson said he was arrested Jan. 24, 1959, while waiting for a bus to take him home. He waited in a small tavern, the Liberty End Cafe, where he said he had bought a dish of macaroni and a glass of beer.

Police said they entered the tavern for a routine inspection and found Thompson "dancing" in a place where dancing is prohibited by law. They charged he became unruly when informed of his arrest, resulting in the disorderly conduct charge.

What the police called dancing was what Thompson called shuffling his feet to the music box. Attorneys for Thompson contended this conviction was unconstitutional for lack of evidence.

No Clues in Triple Slaying in Illinois

By CONRAD FINK

OTTAWA, Ill. (AP) — Crime laboratory officials said today that two of the three socially prominent women beaten to death in Starved Rock State Park apparently were bound together by a psychopathic killer.

The disclosure came in a report by the State Bureau of Identification and Investigation after a top level conference of law enforcement officials.

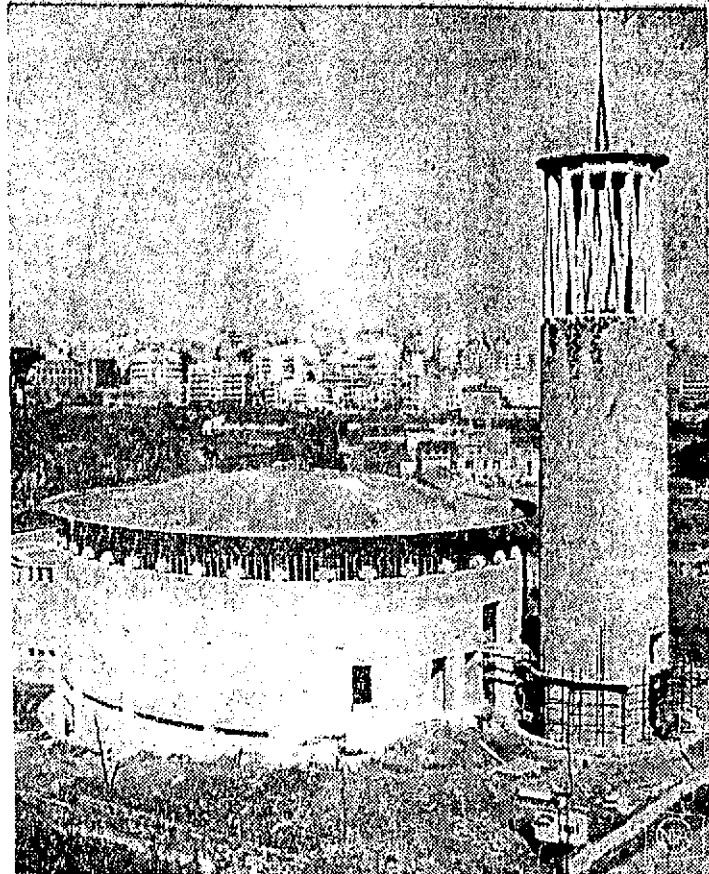

Earlier police said they were hunting for a young man reportedly seen talking to the three women last Monday shortly before they were killed.

State's Atty. Harland Warren, who met with state police Supt. William Morris, Sheriff Ray Batsey and their aides said the act of binding one's victims together points to a certain type of psychopath.

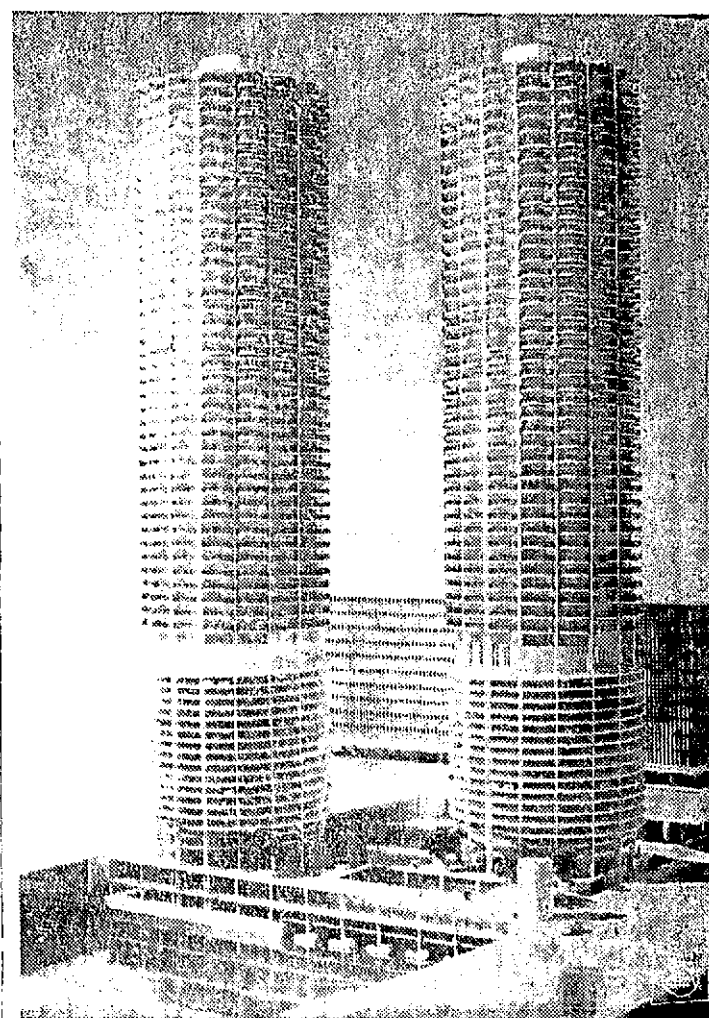

The twine used was a 20-strand variety, commonly used in wrapping packages, said John F. Sehnrich, crime laboratory director.

The battered, bloody bodies of Frances Murphy, 47, Mildred Lindquist, 50, and Lillian Gelling, 50, all of Riverside, a western suburb of Chicago, were found in a cave near the floor of St. Louis Canyon last Wednesday. Their husbands are Chicago business executives.

Farmers to Plant Less Land in '60

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department reported today that surplus-burdened farmers plan to plant about one-third of one per cent less land to crops this year than last.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer in Washington on Wednesday, West Berlin authorities and newspapers endorsed a Neues Deutschland (New Germany), the official East German Communist daily, said that Berlin does not belong to West Germany and is none of the Chancellor's business.

plans made as of March 1 indicated that the prospective plantings for 16 important spring crops will total about 271,000,000 acres, or 1,200,000 acres less than last year.

The total acreage of all crops planted or grown this year was forecast at about 337,000,000 acres, or about one million less than last year. This included winter grains sown last fall for harvest this year.

These planting plans were made at a time when big surpluses of many crops, particularly grains, have been accumulated because production has been running ahead of markets.

Religion Is Forced on Mr. Kennedy

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), a Roman Catholic, entered his seventh presidential primary today and brushed aside a debate challenge from a picketing Protestant group.

The Kennedy party reached the Indiana statehouse this morning to enter the Indiana primary and found a group identifying themselves as Baptists.

The group carried a sign which read: "Sen. Kennedy we challenge you to a public debate."

The pickets, led by Dr. Hendon M. Harris Jr. of Bloomington, Ind., passed out leaflets listing this debate topic: "Resolved: That a Roman Catholic president cannot impartially defend the Constitution and advance the true welfare of the United States while remaining true to his religion."

Kennedy accepted one of the leaflets with a smile but did not comment at that time.

He was asked about the demonstration at a news conference later.

"I think they're entitled to their view and their opinion. I believe in the U.S. Constitution and freedom of speech. I also believe in the Sixth Amendment that there shall be no religious test for office," he answered.

At the end of the news conference in the Indiana House of Representatives chamber, a member of the group shouted: "Are you going to accept our challenge?" Kennedy said he had just stated his views.

When the debate challenge was repeated, he showed signs of irritation and said: "I wonder why you did not challenge me when I entered the U.S. Navy."

He did not amplify his answer.

L. R. Board to Defend Pupil Placement

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Little Rock School Board goes into federal court tomorrow to defend Arkansas' pupil placement law and its use of the act in assigning Negro students to once-white high schools.

The hearing before Judge John E. Miller may last two days. Wiley A. Branton of Pine Bluff, Negro attorney, has subpoenaed 12 school officials and said he might call some students.

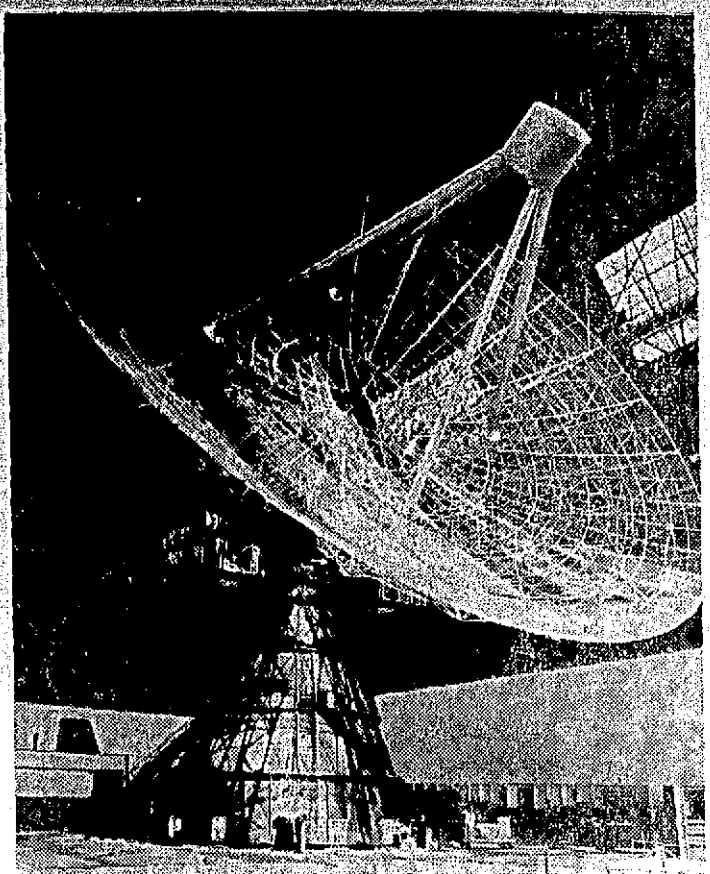

The hearing is on a motion filed by Branton Aug. 8, four days before high schools opened with token integration at Hall and Central. Branton challenged the use of the placement law, contending that any Negro student living in a school's attendance area should be allowed to attend that school.

If upheld, that contention would greatly increase the number of Negroes in the formerly all-white schools. Five Negroes now attend Central and three go to Hall. None attend the small Technical High.

About 700 Negroes are enrolled in the city's Horace Mann High School.

The Board contends the placement law is a necessary tool in carrying court-ordered desegregation. It claims "no student can acquire a vested right to attend any particular school."

Branton has listed 16 Negroes he says were deprived of their rights to attend a white school

Resembling a birdbath that's slightly askew, the antenna, together with its pedestal, is taller than an eight-story building and weighs nearly 375,000 pounds. Constructed by Goodyear Aircraft, it is undergoing tests by Radio Corporation of America. The trackers will be placed at stations in Alaska, Greenland and England.

CHAPTER XXVI

Fletcher Trow came in from the street. He looked sharply at Bokker.

"He's got a writ from the judge," Chaffee explained, handing it to the marshal. "Says we got to release the prisoner."

"How'd he know we had a prisoner?"

Chaffee winced. "The prisoner kept yammering about seeing a lawyer, so I—"

"You're taking a little too much on yourself, Chaffee!" snapped Trow.

Trow tossed the writ to the desk. It was obvious that he was annoyed. "All right," he said to Chaffee, "let him have the prisoner."

Chaffee picked up the large key from the desk and went into the cell block. He returned in a moment, young Smith at his heels. The prisoner kept his face averted, would not look at Fletcher Trow.

Bokker nodded and left the marshal's office. Outside, Smith said hurriedly, "Thanks, Mr. Bokker, thanks a lot."

"Wait a minute!" exclaimed Bokker. "I want to talk to you."

Smith shot a quick look over his shoulder at the jail. He frowned apprehensively, then followed Bokker across the street to the latter's office.

When he had closed the door, Bokker said, "Now, what is it you know about Fletcher Trow?"

"I can't tell you, if Trow knew I did—"

"He isn't going to know," snapped Bokker. "He'll get nothing from me. I'm not exactly a friend of Fletcher Trow's. Here I—"

He strode into his bedroom and caught up his valise. He carried it back into his office and set it on the desk.

He opened the bag, reached in—and froze.

The magazine wasn't in the bag. His eyes met those of Smith. The youth looked at him, puzzled.

"I had something in this bag I wanted to show you. A magazine—" He stopped. "A copy of Fred Cowan's Illustrated Weekly."

Smith's eyes widened. "The one with—with— With—?" His eyes went to the window.

"The one with the sketch of Quantrell and his men at Lawrence, Fletcher Trow's in it."

Smith winced. "That—that's what I was going to tell you about."

"How long is it since you've seen the picture?"

"I dunno, a long time ago. Right after the war."

"You haven't seen it since?"

Smith hesitated, then shook his head. "It's four-five years ago. I'm sure."

"That picture," Bokker said carefully, "showed a number of guerrillas, some are recognizable, some not. Here—"

He caught up a pencil and pulled forward a pad of paper. "This is where Quantrell stood. Bloody Bill Anderson was here and here was Bill Grayson." A shudder ran through Smith. Bokker pushed the pencil into his hand. "Mark down the positions of the others—Fletcher Trow—next to Trow was MacDonald Pierson."

A gasp was torn from Smith's lips. Bokker exclaimed softly. "You're MacDonald Pierson?"

"No!" cried Smith. "MacDonald died in Texas."

Ten of the 16 applied for transfers under the acts and were turned down by the school board. A second appeal also was rejected. The other six Negroes went directly into federal court.

Daw Was Helpless
BOSTON (AP) — When the owner's German shepherd dog bounded out of a back room during a jewelry shop holdup Thursday, one of two robbers leveled a gun and told a clerk to hold the dog or he would shoot it. Robert Mintz, 30, grabbed the dog's collar. The animal snarled helplessly while the gunman took six watches, a score of zircon rings and $25 cash and fled.

Smith took a quick backward step. "You're trying to trick me. My name—my name ain't Pierson."

"You can stop that. Without the whiskers, your face is that of Pierson. I've studied every face in that picture until I can draw it from memory. Who was next to you, Mac—the man who was shooting the man you were dragging up?"

"You said you knew everyone!" cried Smith.

"I know the faces. I don't know the names."

Smith, or Pierson, stared at Bokker. "Who are you?"

"You know who I am. My name is Philip Bokker and I'm a lawyer. I got you out of jail and if you don't tell me what I want to know, you're going back. I mean that, Pierson. I'll have your bail canceled and you'll go back to jail—with Fletcher Trow."

Pierson would have talked, Bokker was sure of it. But just then the door was opened and Paul Shay entered. "Didn't know you were busy, Phil. Sorry."

"Do you mind, Paul? I'll see you in a little while."

Shay nodded and started to turn away. Then he stopped. "It's rather important, Phil."

He indicated the door. Annoyed, Bokker followed him out, closing the door on young Pierson.

"What is it, Paul?" he asked. "Trow," said Shay, "he's got something up his sleeve. Pumped me for about a half hour. I'm afraid he's up to something."

"Thanks for telling me. I'll watch—" Bokker's eyes went to the window. A cry was torn from his throat and he whirled and kicked open the door of his office.

Pierson was no longer in it. To you, I got you out of jail. I put up money of my own—your bedroom. The window was open $61 wasn't enough. I'll see that and Pierson was just disappeared. Trow doesn't harm you. But I'll find through it.
